Don a kimono and embark on a half-day tour featuring Toyama's seasonal scenery, old-fashioned townscape, and traditional foods. Take in the dazzling beauty of nature on the scenic Shogawa River Pleasure Cruise, stroll through the 600-year-old woodcarving town of Inami, and savor the flavors of local specialty foods. You won't find a picturesque kimono tour like this anywhere else!

Inami Japan's greatest woodcarving town

Built around Zuisenji Temple 600 years ago, this town is home to approximately 200 of Japan's finest woodcarvers. Wood carving workshops line the streets, and even the public phone booths and bus stops feature Inami woodcarving. The unique townscape is perfect for taking one-of-a-kind photographs.
